RE: Support for the Listing of the Miners' Union Hall on the Nevada State Register of Historic Places

Dear Members of the Nevada Board of Museums and History:

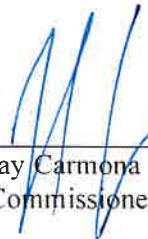

On behalf of the Storey County Board of County Commissioners, we are pleased to express our support for the nomination of the Miners' Union Hall, located at 36 North B Street in Virginia City, Nevada, for listing on the Nevada State Register of Historic Places.

The Miners' Union Hall is an important historic resource within Storey County and the Virginia City community. Its listing on the Nevada State Register would provide well-deserved recognition of the property's historic significance and its contribution to Nevada's history.

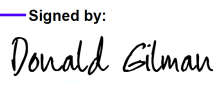

The Board understands that listing on the Nevada State Register does not place limitations on private property, attach restrictive covenants, require the acquisition of the property, or require the property owner to open the property to the public.

For these reasons, the Storey County Board of County Commissioners supports the nomination and listing of the Miners' Union Hall on the Nevada State Register of Historic Places.

Respectfully,

Jay Carmona
Commissioner Chair

Clay Mitchell
Commission Vice-Chair
